Legalization of documents

According to the legislation of the Russian Federation, documents issued in other state, can be used (accepted by the Russian bodies and organizations) only in the presence of legalization. Attention! Legalization of foreign documents and recognition foreign education - different procedures. Legalization of documents is carried out for legal use foreign document in another country. Recognition of education is carried out for the granting of rights to education (or) work activity. Legalization is the commission of a number of certain formal procedures for giving the document legal force in the territory of another States for the purpose of being able to submit it to the authorities another state. There are two types of legalization:

1. Consular legalization.

It is carried out in 2 stages:

- certification of the document (depending on the requirements of the law country of issue: as a rule, the original, in some countries - copies) competent authorities of foreign affairs (MFA) of the country issuing the document
- the relevant stamps and seals are stamped with the indication of the position and signature of the certifying person;
- certification by the consular services of the Russian Federation (consulate or representative office of the Russian Federation) in the country of issue of the document - appropriate stamps and seals with the indication of the position and signature of the reassuring person.

2. "Apostilling" - a simplified procedure for legalization. Apostille (apostille) is an international standardized form filling in information on the legality of the document for presentation in the territory countries that recognize this form of legalization.

The stamp "Apostille" is placed only on the originals of documents on education and (or) qualifications, academic degrees, academic titles.

The stamp "Apostille" testifies to the authenticity of the signature and the presence of the person, signatory of the document submitted to the confirmation, the rights of the signatures, the definition of the authenticity of the seal to which the document is bound, the fact of issuing the document to the person specified in the education and (or) qualifications, academic degrees, academic degrees in quality of its owner. The need for apostille arises from the departure of Russian and foreign citizens who received education in the Russian Federation, and documents received for further study or work in the countries that joined the Hague Convention of October 5, 1961.

Confirmation of Russian documents on education and (or) about qualifications, academic degrees, academic titles in the territory of the Russian Federation is carried out on the basis of:

- The Hague Convention of October 5, 1961.
